CONGRESS FAVORS EXCLUSION OF JAPANESE

SENTIMENT IS STRONG ENOUGH TO UPSET VETO

IMMIGRATION BILL TO BE FINALLY DISPOSED OF TODAY

FIGHT WILL CENTER AROUND THE QUOTA BASIS

Congress Today

(By United Press)
Senate: Expects to pass immigration bill.
Bonus bill to be taken up.
Daugherty investigation continues.
House: Calendar bills.

Washington, April 16.—Congress has served notice on the administration of its determination to exclude Japanese from the United States in such terms that it was considered unlikely here today that President Coolidge would veto the bill containing the exclusion provision.

The senate's action in putting the drastic house exclusion provision in the senate bill without even the formality of a record vote coming on top of the house's action of passing its bill by a vote of more than four to one, was expected to deter the president from disapproving the measure.

Secretary of State Hughes will confer with the president on his return from New York today, but despite his profound opposition to the exclusion clause, there were no authoritative indications that he would consider a veto. Overwhelming support obtained by the proponents of the Japanese exclusion clause indicate sufficient strength to pass the bill over any veto and officials hardly believe that Hughes and the president will risk opening a breach between themselves and congress over the matter.

Mr. Coolidge has been advised by Senator Lodge against doing so.

The senate was finally to dispose of the immigration bill today. With the Japanese question decided, the fight will center around the quota basis. Republicans are committed to a one per cent quota based on the census of 1910. The democrats seek to base it on the 1890 census as the house bill provides. As soon as the bill is passed it will go to conference in the house where differences between the senate and the house bills will be ironed out after which it will be put in the hands of the president.

BRITISH PRESS IS PESSIMISTIC IN TONE

London, April 16.—The British press today sees in adoption of the Japanese exclusion amendment to the immigration bill by congress in Washington "grave dangers" to peace in the Pacific.

The Daily News ridicules the allegations that Ambassador Hanihara's note to Secretary Hughes urging against adoption of the amendment constituted a "threat" to American sovereignty and says that the senate action on the amendment demonstrates a "dangerous spirit of enmity" towards Japan.

"LITTLE GREEN HOUSE ON K STREET"

Washington, April 16.—The senate Daugherty investigating committee has decided to bring Mal Daugherty, brother of the former attorney general, and Howard Mannington, occupant of the "little green house on K street" before the bar of the senate for contempt.

Foregoing the course followed in the case of Harry F. Sinclair who was indicted by a grand jury for his refusal to answer questions of the oil committee, the Brookhart committee intends to bring them directly before the senate to answer for their alleged contempt, Mal Daugherty for his refusal to produce the books of his bank, and Mannington for refusing to appear in answer to a subpoena.

A few minutes before Smith made his speech the convention, called to select delegates and alternates to the national convention, had adopted unanimously a resolution that the delegates be instructed to present the name of Governor Smith to the convention.

INVESTIGATION WAS AIMED AT MELLON

CHARGE MADE HE DREW FIRE FOR BEING AUTHOR OF TAX BILL

(By United Press)
The senate investigation of the internal revenue bureau was "aimed" at Secretary Mellon to "break him down" because he was a principal figure in framing the tax reduction bill," Senator Lodge, Massachusetts republican, floor leader, charged in the senate today.

Mellon knew when this investigation was started, Lodge said, "that it was directed at him. It was not directed at him because he was a republican or because he was secretary of the treasury, but because he was a dominant figure in drawing up the tax bill."

CARELESS HEALTH HABITS EXPENSIVE

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, April 16.—One hundred million dollars in cash—22,000 human lives—550,000 cases of illness.

This is the bill Minneapolis must pay in the next 10 years because of its careless health habits and its lazy living methods, according to Dr. F. E. Harrington, city health commissioner, who is trying to arouse the city to the need of greater care of the complex human machine.

In a proclamation calling attention to the Minneapolis Health Exposition in May, Dr. Harrington showed by figures, that he says are indisputable, that there will be no way to evade payment of this staggering bill unless the people give their bodies greater attention.

"Nearly all diseases, certainly all contagious diseases, are preventable," Dr. Harrington said. "The fact that we permit so much unnecessary sickness and sorrow is a crime—one of the greatest crimes of our vaunted civilization."

SIoux FALLS HAS 3 CORNERED RACE FOR MAYOR

GEORGE W. EGAN, S. D. POLITICIAN, IN THE LIMELIGHT

LEADS A FIELD OF THREE IN THE RACE, BUT HAS NO MAJORITY

(By United Press)
Sioux Falls, S. D., April 16.—George W. Egan, spectacular figure in South Dakota politics for the last few years, was again in the limelight today.

He has been leading a field of three in the race for mayor of Sioux Falls but because he did not receive a majority of the votes cast, a special election will be held next Tuesday when the voters will decide between Egan and Thomas McKinnon for mayor.

Egan received 5,583 votes yesterday, McKinnon 3,361 and George W. Burnside, mayor of the town for 20 years, received only 2,406.

Several times a candidate for governor on all the party tickets going—republican, farmer-labor and democratic—Egan today apparently was about to win the mayoralty — his first public office since he crowded into print.

Egan has been in the toils of the law many times. Three times he was disbarred from practicing law, once for an alleged illegal practice in connection with the robbing of a widow and again when he was charged with a grave moral offense. He is now fighting to keep out of prison because of an alleged attempt to defraud insurance companies in the burning of one of his hotels. A sentence of two years in prison is hanging over him on a technicality.

HARRY K. THAW MAY TAKE THE STAND THIS AFTERNOON

BIG TEST WILL BE HIS OWN APPEARANCE ON THE STAND

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, April 16.—Harry K. Thaw may take the stand this afternoon.

The man whose millions once more have mustered a brilliant array of legal and medical talent to prove him sane and win him freedom, was advised by his counsel to be ready for the big test—his own appearance on the witness stand.

The climax of the Thaw sanity case—cross examination of Harry by attorneys for the Thaw estate and for Evelyn Nesbitt who are blocking his move for freedom—is not expected to be reached until Thursday morning.

THAW LOOKS YOUNGER AND MORE VIGOROUS

Philadelphia, April 16.—Looking younger and more vigorous than at any time since his trial started, Harry K. Thaw came into court today prepared for the ultimate test of his sanity—his own appearance on the stand.

Thaw had his iron gray hair trimmed and was dressed in a gray suit with a colored handkerchief showing from his breast pocket. He bore with him a huge case of black leather stuffed with papers and busied himself with these until the first witness was called.

Thaw appeared eager to go on. His counsel expected to put him to the test late today, unless examination of medical witnesses who preceded him dragged.

The slayer of Stanford White is confident he can prove himself sane and has been coached under the fire of a cross examination that is sure to come.

The first witness, T. R. Phillips, a court stenographer, testified to taking a deposition of 30,000 words made in a single day by Thaw in May, 1918. Dr. George Wilson of the University of Pennsylvania gave evidence that Thaw was sane.

THAW MAY TESTIFY EARLY TOMORROW

Philadelphia, April 16.—Climax of the Thaw sanity trial is to be reserved for tomorrow.

"There is no chance of Harry Thaw taking the stand today," Judge Patterson, his counsel, declared this afternoon after examination of medical witnesses had dragged out beyond their expected length.

The millionaire, who is seeking freedom after seven years of confinement as a lunatic, was downcast and disappointed that his turn to testify in his own behalf had not arrived.

REDUCE TEACHER ROLL IN WILLISTON

(By United Press)
Williston, N. D., April 16.—The number of teachers in the Williston grade and high schools will be reduced next year by four.

The reduction was made possible through a plan worked out by Supt. Harry E. Polk and approved by the school board which eliminated the mid-year promotions and half year sections. This change, it was held, would enable the shifting of pupils to make the enrollment in the different rooms more equal and each filled to capacity.

The high school faculty was cut down by the elimination of all elective subjects, teaching only those subjects which are actually required in the three courses of study—academic, teacher training and commercial.

VOTE DOWN THE DENOUNCING OF KU KLUX KLAN

SPECTACULAR BATTLE IN MISSOURI DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

PERSONAL ENCOUNTERS NARROWLY AVOIDED DURING DEBATE

(By United Press)
Springfield, Mo., April 16.—After a spectacular battle lasting until dawn today, the democratic Missouri state convention here voted down a platform plank denouncing the Ku Klux Klan.

During the discussion of the anti-Klan demonstration, the speaker's platform was filled with dozens of delegates milling about seeking recognition of the chair. Personal encounters were narrowly avoided during the bitter debate. Hoots and cat calls sounded constantly from the floor of the convention.

When the resolution was declared defeated by a viva voce vote, accusations were hurled against Frank H. Harris, chairman of the state committee, that he had ordered Chairman R. E. Culver to not allow a record vote to be taken.

A compromise offered by Charles M. Hay, St. Louis, demanding "civil and religious liberties," was then adopted and the convention adjourned.

CLAIM PROPERTY SOLD TOO CHEAPLY

CHARGES BROUGHT AGAINST ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN

(By United Press)
Washington, April 16.—Alleged irregularity in the sale of property seized in the Philippines during the war by the alien property custodian were related to the senate Daugherty committee today by George W. Storck, department of justice agent.

Seized property was sold at ridiculously low prices, sometimes to receivers appointed by the custodian to administer them, Storck said.

On one occasion President Wilson intervened and set aside a sale in which Francis B. Harrison, the governor general of the islands, acted as agent, Storck said.

REDUCE FREIGHT ON DAIRY CATTLE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 16.—A 25 per cent reduction in freight rates on west bound movements of dairy cattle went into effect today on the Northern Pacific railroad. The old rate will be re-established on May 15.

TWO DESTROYERS SEEK AVIATOR, MAJOR MARTIN

LATTER'S PLANE HAS BEEN THE JINX SINCE THE VERY START

"SEATTLE" PREVIOUSLY PUNCTURED PONTOONS, BROKE PROPELLOR AND STRUTS

(By United Press)
Chignik, Alaska, April 16.—Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the United States army's airplane attempting a flight around the world, who was forced down in the vicinity of Kialagvik Bay, Alaska, was sought by two United States destroyers today, but so far no word has been received as to his fate.

The rocky shore line toward which Major Martin was seen heading by his three flight companions late yesterday is seventy miles away from any communication station and until destroyers reach the spot and find the plane it will be impossible to learn whether he landed safely.

The three remaining planes were brought to Chignik and refueling of the planes was started with a plan of heading south today to aid in the search for the missing pilot.

The destroyers, Hull and Cory, which were just leaving Seward for Bremerton, Washington, were immediately ordered to turn about and proceed to where Major Martin was last seen.

As the Seattle, the plane piloted by the flight commander, nosed toward the rocky shore, Major Martin had no time to inform his companions what mishap to his plane had forced him out of formation.

When the three remaining planes arrived here, Lieutenant Erick Nelson said he expected his commander to follow along in a short time. He had been forced down during previous legs of the flight from California, but always had managed to show up shortly after the other fliers.

When several hours had passed and the Seattle did not appear over the southern horizon, the destroyers were ordered to start in search.

The remaining pilots expected to get away early today in case the destroyers had not reached the place by mid-forenoon.

Major Martin, he said, has had continual trouble with the Seattle ever since the planes left Clover Field, Santa Monica, California. It was just north of Sacramento, California, that he had trouble again near Redding, California. On Lake Washington, near Seattle, huge pontoons had been fitted to the Douglas cruisers. The major's plane hit an obstruction and one of the pontoons was punctured.

At the same time spray broke a blade of his propeller. While landing at Prince Rupert on the flight from Seattle, the major's plane attempted to land from too low an altitude and broke two wing struts as it landed heavily on the waters of the cove.

MARTIN NOT THOUGHT IN DANGER

Washington, April 16.—Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the American round the world fliers who was forced to descend in Kialagvik Bay yesterday en route from Seward to Chignik, is in no danger, Lieutenant Howell Smith, acting commander of the planes wireless the army air service today.

The destroyers Hull and Cory sent to aid him expected to arrive at 5 a. m. coast time this morning, the service said, and they now awaited word of his safety.

Smith said he would send a plane to the bay today if the destroyers thought it was necessary after arriving there.

CHARGES BROUGHT AGAINST ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN

(By United Press) Washington, April 16.—Alleged irregularity in the sale of property seized in the Philippines during the war by the alien property custodian were related to the senate Daugherty committee today by George W. Storck, department of justice agent.

Seized property was sold at ridiculously low prices, sometimes to receivers appointed by the custodian to administer them, Storck said.

On one occasion President Wilson intervened and set aside a sale in which Francis B. Harrison, the governor general of the islands, acted as agent, Storck said.

REDUCE FREIGHT ON DAIRY CATTLE

(By United Press) St. Paul, April 16.—A 25 per cent reduction in freight rates on west bound movements of dairy cattle went into effect today on the Northern Pacific railroad. The old rate will be re-established on May 15.

The reduction applies on dairy cattle shipments from eastern terminals to points in North Dakota and Montana.

Heavy shipments of milch cows and breeding stock are expected as a result of the reduction, according to H. W. Byerly, general immigration agent of the Northern Pacific railroad, who made the announcement.

TWO DESTROYERS SEEK AVIATOR, MAJOR MARTIN

LATTER'S PLANE HAS BEEN THE JINX SINCE THE VERY START

"SEATTLE" PREVIOUSLY PUNCTURED PONTOONS, BROKE PROPELLOR AND STRUTS

(By United Press) Chignik, Alaska, April 16.—Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the United States army's airplane attempting a flight around the world, who was forced down in the vicinity of Kialagvik Bay, Alaska, was sought by two United States destroyers today, but so far no word has been received as to his fate.

The rocky shore line toward which Major Martin was seen heading by his three flight companions late yesterday is seventy miles away from any communication station and until destroyers reach the spot and find the plane it will be impossible to learn whether he landed safely.

The three remaining planes were brought to Chignik and refueling of the planes was started with a plan of heading south today to aid in the search for the missing pilot.

The destroyers, Hull and Cory, which were just leaving Seward for Bremerton, Washington, were immediately ordered to turn about and proceed to where Major Martin was last seen.

As the Seattle, the plane piloted by the flight commander, nosed toward the rocky shore, Major Martin had no time to inform his companions what mishap to his plane had forced him out of formation.

When the three remaining planes arrived here, Lieutenant Erick Nelson said he expected his commander to follow along in a short time. He had been forced down during previous logs of the flight from California, but always had managed to show up shortly after the other fliers.

When several hours had passed and the Seattle did not appear over the southern horizon, the destroyers were ordered to start in search.

The remaining pilots expected to get away early today in case the destroyers had not reached the place by mid-forenoon.

Major Martin, he said, has had continual trouble with the Seattle ever since the planes left Clover Field, Santa Monica, California. It was just north of Sacramento, California, that he had trouble again near Redding, California. On Lake Washington, near Seattle, huge pontoons had been fitted to the Douglas cruisers. The major's plane hit an obstruction and one of the pontoons was punctured.

At the same time spray broke a blade of his propeller. While landing at Prince Rupert on the flight from Seattle, the major's plane attempted to land from too low an altitude and broke two wing struts as it landed heavily on the waters of the cove.

MARTIN NOT THOUGHT IN DANGER

Washington, April 16.—Major Frederick L. Martin, commander of the American round the world fliers who was forced to descend in Kialagvik Bay yesterday en route from Seward to Chignik, is in no danger, Lieutenant Howell Smith, acting commander of the planes wirelessed the army air service today.

The destroyers Hull and Cory sent to aid him expected to arrive at 5 a. m. coast time this morning, the service said, and they now awaited word of his safety.

Smith said he would send a plane to the bay today if the destroyers thought it was necessary after arriving there.

Hebrew Language

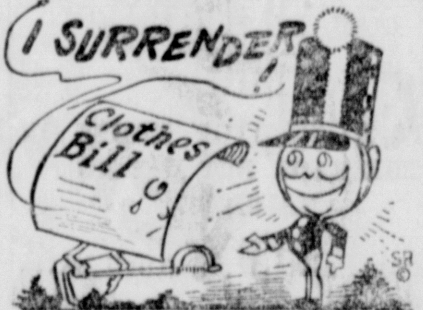

Owing to the efforts of Ben Yehudah, an enthusiast for Jewish nationalism, the ancient Hebrew is being revived. This language was not spoken even so late as the time of Christ. In those days the inhabitants of Judea spoke Aramaic. For more than forty years Ben Yehudah worked. Besides all his propaganda in the schools, in the press and on the platform he set to work on a tremendous lexicon or thesaurus in ten volumes, almost as great a work as the great Oxford dictionary, on which a corps of English scholars have been at work for a generation. He died with that work uncompleted, but so far advanced that his disciples can readily finish it. Most of the Jews in the Holy Land now speak Hebrew and are proud to call it their "mother tongue." The British government, which holds a mandate over Palestine under the treaty of Versailles, recognizes Hebrew as an official language and publishes a Hebrew copy of all legal governmental papers.

Last Month
He Bought a Hotel

Nicholas Conte came to this country from Italy twenty-two years ago. He repaired shoes for Massachusetts people for eighteen years, laying by a little money, each year, for the future. He has raised a large family and lived comfortably. Yet last month, out of his savings, he bought a hotel, paying $36,000 cash for it.

Nicholas early saw the possibilities in a savings account.

The Junior class of the Brainerd high school is nearing the completion of its preparations for the large indoor carnival that is to be held at the high school building, April 26th. The various costumes are being made, last minute attractions are being perfected, etc. The participants of this carnival are all well known students of the high school, some of whom were in the class play and operetta, and others with as much ability who have not had a chance to prove their worth.

They believe that in announcing that the participants are students will create a greater interest on the part of the public toward this venture and as other students attractions have succeeded they expect to make a success of this, which is of course impossible unless they get the support of the people. In saying that they expect to succeed it is not their purpose to create an impression of over-confidence, but they are putting in their best efforts to make it a success and in so doing they can see nothing ahead but success.

The attractions of this carnival will not be unlike many of those which are found in a street carnival; only they will of course abolish the undesirable qualities so often found in such carnivals.

Watch for further announcements concerning attractions etc., and above all remember the date—April 26th.

Have Your Horse's Harness Fit Addie Graves

The horse is our most useful dumb friend. There is nothing more unprofitable as well as cruel than working him in a bad-fitting harness. It produces almost intolerable pain, causes him to fret and waste time, and consequently he loses flesh. In most cases one will lose the service of the horse while sore shoulders, backs and chafes are being healed. It is impossible to heal collar and saddle galls without resting the horse.

A harness should be neither too small nor too large. If too small it pinches, chokes the circulation of blood to and from the parts, which usually results in congestion, followed by more or less inflammation of the bruised part; if too large, the harness shifts from place, causing more or less friction.

Every one of us wears shoes, but none of us has escaped having sore feet, and in nearly all cases it is the result of wearing too small or too large shoes, that were not the shape of our feet. There are seldom two horses that have the same shaped, same size of neck and the same formed shoulders, therefore it is unreasonable to assume that one collar should fit several horses. When the collar is too wide, the shoulders are pretty sure to be made sore, especially if the horse is doing hard work in hot weather. The collar should be sufficiently long and it is important that it fit the whole neck, especially the upper part, or it pinches and makes a sore. The face of a collar should be made so that it has a resting place on the whole shoulder, therefore, if it is too wide, it is sure to hurt the horse.

Every work-horse that is working is earning money and he is entitled to a good-fitting collar. The only way to prevent sore shoulders in some horses is to have a collar maker make a collar that fits the horse. The size of the horses' necks reduce very much when they are thin, and enlarge considerably when they are fleshy; therefore, the condition of the horse should be considered when having his neck fitted.

It is true that by using sweat pads of different thickness a collar can be so adjusted to the neck that a horse is made more comfortable, than if wearing too big a collar. The sweat pad is very useful in assisting to make the collar fit, but most farmers and team owners have too few of them. The sweat pad soon becomes filthy and unfit to wear unless it is cleaned and dried daily, especially if the horse that wears it perspires much. I have found it a good plan to dip dirty sweat pads in gasoline or wash them with soap and water and hang them out in the sun.

Much can be done in the adjustment of a collar to the neck by giving attention to the hames, for if they are too wide apart at the top or bottom, a horse never works comfortably. See that the hames fit the collar if the collar fits the horse. Bad-shaped hames often spoil the horse's comfort.

Now, regarding the saddle. There are so many different shaped backs that it is absolutely necessary to have a nice-fitting saddle, and I am sorry to say that few teamsters give this matter much thought when buying a harness. The result is, if the saddle does not fit the back and the harness is heavy, it is almost certain to cause soreness, if not a wound. The center of the saddle should stand away from the ridge of the back. It is also important to tighten the belly girth fairly snug to hold the saddle from moving too much. I find it is also important to have a nice-fitting crupper; if the crupper is too small and not well made, the horse heavy-headed and check fastened to saddle, the tail is usually made sore, but if the crupper is large and smooth the tail seldom gets sore. The parts of a harness that come in contact with the body of the horse, such as the crown piece of bridle, traces, back strap and breeching, should be smooth or else they chafe and make

Never work a well horse in the harness that came off one which had skin disease, sore back or shoulders. "THE PAIN IN THE NORTHWEST"

WHEN Garret Garrett wrote of "The Pain in the Northwest" in the Saturday Evening Post, he gave every reader in this great section of the United States a real pain. Many papers are taking up the cudgels against Mr. Garrett. The St. Paul association and the Minneapolis Civic & Commerce association have appealed to the editor of the Saturday Evening Post.

The editor of the St. Paul Daily News writes in vigorous English and in a two-column front page article says Mr. Garrett seems to have adopted the method of the quacks who used to advertise "send me a lock of your hair and I will tell you what's the matter with you." The News continues:

"One gathers from Mr. Garrett's article that most of the banks in the northwest (including Minnesota) have closed their doors; that every farmer is bankrupt; that business is at a standstill; and that all this is due to the failure of the wheat crop and the laziness of the wheat farmer."

"Wheat farming is not Minnesota's principal industry. In 1922 the income from dairying activities in this state was $240,000,000, while that from the wheat crop was $27,500,000. The butter-making industry alone produced wealth amounting to $73,000,000 in Minnesota in 1922. Eighty-seven per cent of this went to the farmer."

EMPLOYING REHABILITATED VETERANS

GOVERNOR R. A. NESTOS, of North Dakota, has issued a proclamation urging cooperation with the U. S. Veterans Bureau in finding suitable employment for rehabilitated veterans.

"The United States Veterans Bureau," says the governor, "has done a splendid work in rehabilitating the men disabled in the World war, for the purpose of making them self-sustaining; active and helpful factors in the life of the community, state and nation. This course of instruction and vocational education has been so successful that many of these men are now capable of undertaking various classes of work and of rendering satisfactory service."

"No group of men in our country is more entitled to respectful and sympathetic consideration. Those rehabilitated veterans must be absorbed by industry, the professions, trades and agriculture. The government promised all of these men at the beginning of their training period that they would be provided with employment opportunities at the completion of their courses of instruction. These promises must be kept. It is a governmental, fraternal, business, and patriotic duty to aid in the return of these men to the economic life of the state."

ON IMPORTANT COMMITTEE

H. P. DUNN of Brainerd and F. B. Johnson of Pequot have been highly honored through appointment as members of the Pharmacy Headquarters Building committee of the American Pharmaceutical association. The association is now engaged in raising a fund of a million dollars to erect, equip and maintain a headquarters building for American pharmacy.

Committeemen have been appointed in every state, city and county in the country. Every branch of the drug business is taking part in the enterprise, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, college professors, board of pharmacy members and drug store clerks.

The building is to be used to promote better drug service to pharmacists and the public. It will provide permanent headquarters for the association, offices and facilities for publication purposes, research laboratories, museum, library and also space which may be utilized by the representatives of all national drug trade associations, so that all branches of the drug trade may work together for the development and protection of pharmacy and its interests.

The association possesses splendid exhibits for a museum, the nucleus of a pharmaceutical library and a promise to equip a modern research laboratory.

MOTOR BUS COMPETITION

THE motor bus business has assumed such proportions as to seriously cut into the passenger carrying revenues of the railways. The competition has been recognized by Commissioner C. M. Babcock. He suggests laws to route the bus lines into such regions which have no adequate railway facilities.

The competition in the cities carries an added factor, the buses competing with the street car lines. The bus is a comparatively new factor in transportation, but it is rapidly edging its way into a position of prominence.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

It is commendable on the part of citizens to observe Good Friday with union services of the churches at the New Park theatre, the service starting at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and concluding at 3 o'clock. It breathes a spirit of high devotion to One whose life and acts have influenced, more than any other factor, the life and currents of the world.

It is the first time Brainerd has planned such a union service. The Business Men's association has addressed an appeal that all business places in the city close during the hours of service.

TWO BIG OPENINGS

Two big openings occurred yesterday, start of the baseball season and opening of the trout season in Minnesota. Non-resident fishermen are required to pay a license fee of $2, and State Game and Fish Commissioner J. F. Gould has instructed all game wardens to enforce the law on licenses.

HIGHWAY ESSAYS CONTEST

G. ROY HILL, secretary of the Minneapolis Automobile club, has urged high school students of the state to write 700 word essays on "The Relation of Improved Highways to Home Life," in competition for a four year university scholarship valued at $4,000, offered by the U. S. highway education board. These essays should be submitted by students to their school principals before April 21.

Air Mail Pilots, Who Must Fly in All Kinds of Weather, Learn How To Use Tricky Parachute

Orders were issued recently that all pilots of the Air Mail Service must learn to use parachutes. Unlike other aviators, they cannot pick and choose their weather and at any time may be forced to land or even leap from their planes to save their lives. This photograph, taken at Mineola, L. I., shows Pilot Whalen helping to adjust a parachute on Pilot Johnson just before they went up to take a lesson in the safe way to jump.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Brainerd man.

S. J. Greer, horseshoer, 822 S. 7th St., says: "When I was young I had an accident that affected my kidneys. When I was working, the constant bending and straining on my back irritated my kidneys. When I got down to put a shoe on a horse it was about all I could do to get up again. I sure was in pain and it became hard for me to do my work properly. My kidneys didn't act right, but when I got to using Dean's Pills I was fixed up in good shape. I have had little or no kidney trouble since and my health has been fine."

Washington, April 16.—Jess Smith "split" $200,000 obtained from New York bootleggers for whiskey permits with former Attorney General Daugherty, Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, today told the senate Daugherty investigating committee, Smith had informed him. The bootleggers were demanding return of the money, Smith said, and Smith told him he could not return it because he had split it with Daugherty.

"Everybody knew that Jess Smith and Mannington were splitting with the attorney general on liquor deals."

"Everybody knew that Jess Smith and Mannington were working with Daugherty to get whiskey permits," Means said.

"THE PAIN IN THE NORTHWEST"

WHEN Garet Garrett wrote of "The Pain in the Northwest" in the Saturday Evening Post, he gave every reader in this great section of the United States a real pain. Many papers are taking up the cudgels against Mr. Garrett. The St. Paul association and the Minneapolis Civic & Commerce association have appealed to the editor of the Saturday Evening Post.

The editor of the St. Paul Daily News writes in vigorous English and in a two-column front page article says Mr. Garrett seems to have adopted the method of the quacks who used to advertise "send me a lock of your hair and I will tell you what's the matter with you." The News continues:

"One gathers from Mr. Garrett's article that most of the banks in the northwest (including Minnesota) have closed their doors; that every farmer is bankrupt; that business is at a standstill; and that all this is due to the failure of the wheat crop and the laziness of the wheat farmer."

"Wheat farming is not Minnesota's principal industry. In 1922 the income from dairying activities in this state was $240,000,000, while that from the wheat crop was $27,500,000. The butter-making industry alone produced wealth amounting to $73,000,000 in Minnesota in 1922. Eighty-seven per cent of this went to the farmer."

EMPLOYING REHABILITATED VETERANS

GOVERNOR R. A. NESTOS, of North Dakota, has issued a proclamation urging cooperation with the U. S. Veterans Bureau in finding suitable employment for rehabilitated veterans.

"The United States Veterans Bureau," says the governor, "has done a splendid work in rehabilitating the men disabled in the World war, for the purpose of making them self-sustaining; active and helpful factors in the life of the community, state and nation. This course of instruction and vocational education has been so successful that many of these men are now capable of undertaking various classes of work and of rendering satisfactory service."

"No group of men in our country is more entitled to respectful and sympathetic consideration. Those rehabilitated veterans must be absorbed by industry, the professions, trades and agriculture. The government promised all of these men at the beginning of their training period that they would be provided with employment opportunities at the completion of their courses of instruction. These promises must be kept. It is a governmental, fraternal, business, and patriotic duty to aid in the return of these men to the economic life of the state."

ON IMPORTANT COMMITTEE

H. P. DUNN of Brainerd and F. B. Johnson of Pequot have been highly honored through appointment as members of the Pharmacy Headquarters Building committee of the American Pharmaceutical association. The association is now engaged in raising a fund of a million dollars to erect, equip and maintain a headquarters building for American pharmacy.

Committeemen have been appointed in every state, city and county in the country. Every branch of the drug business is taking part in the enterprise, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, college professors, board of pharmacy members and drug store clerks.

The building is to be used to promote better drug service to pharmacists and the public. It will provide permanent headquarters for the association, offices and facilities for publication purposes, research laboratories, museum, library and also space which may be utilized by the representatives of all national drug trade associations, so that all branches of the drug trade may work together for the development and protection of pharmacy and its interests.

The association possesses splendid exhibits for a museum, the nucleus of a pharmaceutical library and a promise to equip a modern research laboratory.

MOTOR BUS COMPETITION

THE motor bus business has assumed such proportions as to seriously cut into the passenger carrying revenues of the railroads. The competition has been recognized by Commissioner C. M. Babcock. He suggests laws to route the bus lines into such regions which have no adequate railway facilities.

The competition in the cities carries an added factor, the buses competing with the street car lines. The bus is a comparatively new factor in transportation, but it is rapidly edging its way into a position of prominence.

GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

It is commendable on the part of citizens to observe Good Friday with union services of the churches at the New Park theatre, the service starting at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and concluding at 3 o'clock. It breathes a spirit of high devotion to One whose life and acts have influenced, more than any other factor, the life and currents of the world.

It is the first time Brainerd has planned such a union service. The Business Men's association has addressed an appeal that all business places in the city close during the hours of service.

TWO BIG OPENINGS

Two big openings occurred yesterday, start of the baseball season and opening of the trout season in Minnesota. Non-resident fishermen are required to pay a license fee of $2, and State Game and Fish Commissioner J. F. Gould has instructed all game wardens to enforce the law on licenses.

HIGHWAY ESSAYS CONTEST

G. ROY HILL, secretary of the Minneapolis Automobile club, has urged high school students of the state to write 700 word essays on "The Relation of Improved Highways to Home Life," in competition for a four year university scholarship valued at $4,000, offered by the U. S. highway education board. These essays should be submitted by students to their school principals before April 21.

Air Mail Pilots, Who Must Fly in All Kinds of Weather, Learn How To Use Tricky Parachute

Orders were issued recently that all pilots of the Air Mail Service must learn to use parachutes. Unlike other aviators, they cannot pick and choose their weather and at any time may be forced to land or even leap from their planes to save their lives. This photograph, taken at Mineola, L. I., shows Pilot Whalen helping to adjust a parachute on Pilot Johnson just before they went up to take a lesson in the safe way to jump.

BRAINERD MAN'S LUCKY FIND

Will Interest Readers of the Dispatch

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Brainerd man.

S. J. Greer, horseshoer, 822 S. 7th St., says: "When I was young I had an accident that affected my kidneys. When I was working, the constant bending and straining on my back irritated my kidneys. When I got down to put a shoe on a horse it was about all I could do to get up again. I sure was in pain and it became hard for me to do my work properly. My kidneys didn't act right, but when I got to using Dean's Pills I was fixed up in good shape. I have had little or no kidney trouble since and my health has been fine."

JAPANESE FRIENDSHIP

Tokio, April 16.—Fear that passage of the Japanese exclusion by the United States will "undoubtedly effect that spirit of friendship and esteem in which we have been happy to regard you," was expressed today by Baron Mutsu, Japanese foreign minister, in an interview with the American press representatives.

"It cannot do more," he added, "but with a nation of the character of yours, regard of others we believe is a consideration of first importance."

CLAIM SMITH "SPLIT"

ON BOOTLEGGER PERMITS

Washington, April 16.—Jess Smith "split" $200,000 obtained from New York bootleggers for whiskey permits with former Attorney General Daugherty, Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, today told the senate Daugherty investigating committee, Smith had informed him. The bootleggers were demanding return of the money, Smith said, and Smith told him he could not return it because he had split it with Daugherty.

"Everybody knew that Jess Smith and Manning were splitting with the attorney general on liquor deals."

"Everybody knew that Jess Smith and Manning were working with Daugherty to get whiskey permits," Means said.

No Matter What You Pay — You Can't Buy More than De Forest!

NATURAL to suppose that a receiving set with a long name and a large number of tubes will bring in more stations and at a greater distance than a set with a shorter name and fewer tubes!

The way to find out the truth is to put a De Forest Reflex Radiophone in the same room with any set made—no matter how many tubes it uses—no matter how long its name—no matter how great its price—and buy the one that suits you best.

You will find that the De Forest D-10 Reflex will get all the stations any other set will get, probably more clearly, certainly more easily, and probably for about half the money. Its upkeep cost in tubes and batteries will be much lower. You can move it around from room to room or operate it in your car. When a better set is made De Forest will make it.

Remember that De Forest invented broadcasting. Remember that De Forest invented the vacuum tube which makes all present-day radio possible.

LISTING ASSETS

FINISHED SOON

Frank T. Artig, state bank examiner, expects to complete his task of listing the assets and liabilities of the Brainerd State bank, which closed its doors on April 7th, within the next day or two.

J. H. Kinney, who has been appointed receiver of the institution, states that he will liquidate the resources of the bank just as rapidly as possible. He has today opened the doors of the bank so that patrons may transact any business that they may have there during hours which will be posted on the main entrance.

The receiver's orders are to close up the bank's affairs just as rapidly as possible, unless the officers of the institution supply enough funds to reopen, which it is said there is some talk of doing.

Mr. Kinney feels that his work will require at least a year, during which time he will make his residence in Brainerd. Whatever assets have not been liquidated by that time, will be handled from the St. Paul office, he stated. This is, of course, in the event that the bank is not reopened.

Ray Engbretson plead guilty to a speeding charge, and was fined $5.

Peter Jones, charged with selling junk without a proper license, and buying brass from minors, was given a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court, bonds being set at $250.

The "Pep Class" of the Methodist church held its second monthly business meeting on Tuesday evening, followed by a social session.

This class was organized some six weeks ago, and is composed of young married couples together with other young people who have outgrown the regular young peoples department.

The class upheld its name in presenting the social part of the program. Everyone entered into the games and stunts with real spirit and zest, making the occasion one continuous roar of laughter.

Two of the features that really called for plenty of action and endurance were the kiddie car relay race between two chosen teams, and the birthday spanking of Rev. E. A. Cooke, who was careless enough to announce that event. It was a hard struggle, on the part of the male members of the class, but they finally won.

At eleven o'clock a delicious lap supper was served, and the party dispersed as rapidly as one car could handle the members through the rain. The event was voted a big

How Not to Eat!

Table manners in the Seventeenth century must have stood in need of considerable improvement, if we may take seriously the advice that Hannah Wooley gave to young ladies in the Gentlewoman's Companion, published in 1675. It must be admitted that Miss Wooley "wielded a trenchant pen."

"Gentlewomen, discover not by any ravenous gesture your angry appetite nor fix your eyes too greedily on the meat before you, as if you would devour more that way than your throat would swallow. In carving avoid clapping your fingers in your mouth and licking them after you have burnt them. Close your lips when you eat and do not smack like a pig. Fill not your mouth so full that your cheeks shall swell like a pair of Scotch bagpipes. It is very uncomely to drink so large a draught that your breath is almost gone and you are forced to blow strongly to recover yourself."—Youth's Companion.

Famous Bunker Hill Order

On a night in June, in 1775, early in the Revolutionary war, Col. William Prescott of the American army had orders to seize and fortify Bunker hill against the British. The next day, as the British marched, firing now and then, the Americans gave no answering shot.

The British could see the muzzles of the rifles of the invisible defenders resting on the ramparts, but what they could not see or hear was the officers in the trenches running up and down the line, commanding the men to hold their fire.

It was at the battle of Bunker hill that the now historic command, "Don't one of you fire till you see the whites of their eyes," was given by Colonel Prescott. The officers knew how scarce powder was; the men did not.—Detroit News.

"Clay Dogs"

A "fossil apple" and a "fossil banana" recently were sent to the New York Botanical garden with requests for explanations. Dr. Arthur Hollick, paleobotanist, says many strange objects are sent to museums for identification or for verification of the finder's conviction as to what they are. A large number of these finds are concretions and apt to simulate any object, organic or inorganic. A concretion consists of an inner part—a nucleus of some kind—around which is deposited layer upon layer of the mineral substance that forms the exterior part. These concretions, which are commonly called "clay dogs," usually occur in connection with clay deposits.

Why Commercial Users Prefer the Ford

There is much significance in the fact that more than 75% of all commercial cars of one-ton capacity or less in the United States are Fords.

This overwhelming preference for Ford haulage units has its basis in the low cost of Ford transportation, the rugged construction of the truck itself, and its unusual adaptability to every line of industry.

Mechanical excellence, simplicity of design and ample power are further factors that have contributed to the popularity of the Ford One-Ton Worm Drive Truck.

The Ford One-Ton Truck equipped with an all-steel body and cab is now available as a complete unit, priced at $490 f. o. b. Detroit. Screen sides and canopy roof that may be easily fitted to this unit are supplied at small additional cost.

How Not to Eat

Table manners in the Seventeenth century must have stood in need of considerable improvement, if we may take seriously the advice that Hannah Wooley gave to young ladies in the Gentlewoman's Companion, published in 1675. It must be admitted that Miss Wooley, "wielded a trenchant pen."

"Gentlewomen, discover not by any ravenous gesture your angry appetite, nor fix your eyes too greedily on the meat before you, as if you would devour more than way than your throat would swallow. In carving avoid clapping your fingers in your mouth and licking them after you have burnt them. Close your lips when you eat and do not smack like a pig. Fill not your mouth so full that your cheeks shall swell like a pair of Scotch bagpipes. It is very uncomely to drink so large a draught that your breath is almost gone and you are forced to blow strongly to recover yourself."—Youth's Companion.

TO FILE FOR CONGRESS

O. J. Bouma Seeks Nomination on the Farmer-Labor Ticket

O. J. Bouma announces that he expects to file on Friday for the nomination for congress from the sixth district on the Farmer-Labor ticket. He has only one opponent in his party to date, A. H. Hendrickson, of Little Sauk, Todd county, filing some ten days ago.

Mr. Bouma is well known in Brainerd, where he has resided for the past eight years, and throughout the district, which he has covered pretty thoroughly during the last six months as supervisor of organization for the Farmer-Labor party. He resigned that position several weeks ago.

He states that his platform will be that of the Farmer-Labor party, as adopted at its convention at St. Cloud, March 14th. He has seven invitations to speak before gatherings of his party, the first of which will be on next Saturday.

He was first identified with the Nonpartisan League in 1916, and has been associated with this class of progressives ever since.

WASHINGTON-LINCOLN P. T. A.

Miss Eula Michael's Report on Under-Weight Pupils Reveals Interesting Data

The last meeting of the season for the Washington-Lincoln P. T. A. was held in the Lincoln building Monday evening. Miss Eula Michael's report on under weight pupils showed that in six weeks one-fourth the number had attained normal weight and a satisfactory gain for the others was also recorded. These pupils had each had one-half pint of milk at the morning recess.

The playground committee reported that if the city attorney finds no fault with the purchase, three lots on the northwest corner of the Lincoln site will be added to the playgrounds.

Officers chosen for the coming year are:

President, Mrs. Ray Paine.
Vice President, Mrs. C. H. Varner.
Secretary, Miss Karin Flaata.
Treasurer, Mrs. L. F. Hohman.

Following the business meeting came a splendid musical program. The numbers given by the children were especially good and much enjoyed. The committee was unusually fortunate in also securing the high school double quartet, Mrs. J. H. Krekelberg and Dr. Badeaux. Mrs. Krekelberg was accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Erickson and Dr. Badeaux by Miss Skauge. Judge L. B. Kinder gave a talk in which he explained the relation of pupils, teachers and parents, and laws governing the same. The committee in charge wishes to thank all who assisted to make it a pleasant evening.

The P. T. A. feels well pleased with the year's work. Not only has the attendance more than doubled, but the activities of the association have gained success through the teamwork shown by members.

In the case of Miss Waterman, who was elected instructor in the normal department, this election was subject to the condition that enough students enroll for this training so that the department can be continued. The board requires that at least ten sign up for the normal course.

TO FILE FOR CONGRESS

O. J. Bouma Seeks Nomination on the Farmer-Labor Ticket

O. J. Bouma announces that he expects to file on Friday for the nomination for congress from the sixth district on the Farmer-Labor ticket. He has only one opponent in his party to date, A. H. Hendrickson, of Little Sauk, Todd county, filing some ten days ago.

Mr. Bouma is well known in Brainerd, where he has resided for the past eight years, and throughout the district, which he has covered pretty thoroughly during the last six months as supervisor of organization for the Farmer-Labor party. He resigned that position several weeks ago.

He states that his platform will be that of the Farmer-Labor party, as adopted at its convention at St. Cloud, March 14th. He has seven invitations to speak before gatherings of his party, the first of which will be on next Saturday.

He was first identified with the Nonpartisan League in 1916, and has been associated with this class of progressives ever since.

Miss Eula Michael's Report on Under Weight Pupils Reveals Interesting Data

The last meeting of the season for the Washington-Lincoln P. T. A. was held in the Lincoln building Monday evening. Miss Eula Michael's report on under weight pupils showed that in six weeks one-fourth the number had attained normal weight and a satisfactory gain for the others was also recorded. These pupils had each had one-half pint of milk at the morning recess.

The playground committee reported that if the city attorney finds no fault with the purchase, three lots on the northwest corner of the Lincoln site will be added to the playgrounds.

Officers chosen for the coming year are:

President, Mrs. Ray Paine.
Vice President, Mrs. C. H. Varner.
Secretary, Miss Karin Flaata.
Treasurer, Mrs. L. F. Hohman.

Following the business meeting came a splendid musical program. The numbers given by the children were especially good and much enjoyed. The committee was unusually fortunate in also securing the high school double quartet, Mrs. J. H. Krekelberg and Dr. Badeaux. Mrs. Krekelberg was accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Erickson and Dr. Badeaux by Miss Skauge. Judge L. B. Kinder gave a talk in which he explained the relation of pupils, teachers and parents, and laws governing the same. The committee in charge wishes to thank all who assisted to make it a pleasant evening.

The P. T. A. feels well pleased with the year's work. Not only has the attendance more than doubled, but the activities of the association have gained success through the teamwork shown by members.

Money That Holds Back Prosperity

Money hoarded at home doesn't do this work. It contributes nothing to the general welfare. It holds back prosperity.

GARDEN CONTEST

All Registrations Should be Made on or Before Next Tuesday

The interest in the garden contest in Northeast Brainerd has grown to such an extent that the committee find it necessary to have the children, 16 years and under, attending the Garfield school register at that school and those attending the high school or parochial school register with Mrs. J. H. Herbert, 414 3rd ave., northeast. All registrations should be made on or before next Tuesday.

Through an error last night, the age limit was stated as 12 years, when it should have been 16 years and under.

GIVE KANSAS A CHANCE, SAYS FARRELL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 16.—Benny Leonard laments the lack of lightweight opponents that may force him to graduate into the welterweight class. The champion's plea for sympathy is endorsed by leading promoters who want to employ Leonard, but can't find a job for him.

There has been talk for more than a year about the necessity of building up some good lightweight challenger for an outdoor bout. Tex Rickard tried to hustle Louis Vicentini into the role, but he was stopped temporarily when he lost a decision to Johnny Shugrue.

Pal Moran, the New Orleans boy, measured up to the specifications of a candidate for a while, until he was beaten by the veteran Johnny Dundee.

Dundee claims that he is entitled to the first crack at Leonard, but his first duty is to defend his featherweight and junior lightweight titles.

In the general scramble it seems that Rocky Kansas, the little Buffalo Italian, has been overlooked.

Kansas, perhaps, has a more legitimate claim for another chance at the title than any other contender in the class. It is certain that his record makes him more qualified than any other contender who has to be "built up" into a card.

Kansas has built himself up by beating practically every man in the class, with the exception of Leonard.

His best known role in recent years was that of a built-up wrecker. When Willie Jackson was worked almost up to a fight with Leonard, two years ago, Kansas beat him and spoiled the plans. When Tendler had worked up into the dominating position among the contenders, Kansas beat him and set him back and when Charley White had been advanced within a step of a title bout, Kansas beat him and removed him almost entirely from consideration.

Kansas knocked out Richie Mitchell when he was in his prime, and he beat Sailor Friedman and every other lightweight of importance in the class.

In his Benton Harbor fight with Leonard, he broke his arm in the third round, and he continued five rounds before his manager, Dan Rogers, tossed in the towel and made him stop.

Just recently he had Jack Bernstein on the floor and badly beaten when he hurt his arm and, even with that handicap, he earned a draw.

FARRELL PICKS THE WINNERS

The sport columns of the Dispatch have been devoted to a discussion of the 1924 major league pennant races, the chances of the sixteen teams and a prediction of the order in which the teams will finish, made by Henry L. Farrell, United Press sports editor.

In the last four years Farrell has failed only once to pick the two pennant winners. He picked Cleveland as the American League pennant winner in 1920, but missed out on Brooklyn as the National League winner. Since then he has not only been successful in predicting the winners, but has called the turn practically on every club in the two leagues.

Last April Farrell placed six of the eight teams as they finished in the National League and he picked first and second in the American League. Farrell also was one of the few critics who picked the Yankees to beat the Giants in the world's series last fall.

WRECK INJURIES MAY BLIND HURDLER

San Mateo, Calif., April 16.—E. L. Spencer of Modesto, Calif., star hurdler of Stanford university and candidate for the American Olympic team, is in a hospital today threatened with blindness as a result of an automobile wreck.

He was brought to the hospital by Paul Wilbur, son of Secretary of Navy Wilbur, who found Spencer pinned under the machine.

The machine which had been driven by R. A. Pike, another Stanford student, overturned when, according to Pike, he turned out of the road to avoid an oncoming car which was crowding him. Pike was not injured.

FIRPO WILL SOON SAIL FOR U. S.

New York, April 16.—Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight champion, has booked passage for the United States and will sail April 24, according to information received by Billy McCarney, his New York representative.

This confirms the cabled story from Buenos Aires last Saturday saying that Firpo was not going to retire and planned to return to New York.

McCarney said he had not been advised of Firpo's plans for the summer, but that he was going ahead and sign up dates for the exhibition tour which the South American had planned to make this summer.

No efforts, McCarney said, would be made to sign Firpo for any big matches until he arrives here to talk with promoters.

TY COBB STEALS THIRD; MAN ON BASE

Greenville, S. C., April 16.—Ty Cobb pulled a boner in a recent exhibition game between the Tigers and Toronto teams at Greenville, S. C.

The peerless center fielder stole third base, and arriving there, found Bobby Jones occupying the sack awaiting opportunity to score. Ty enjoyed the razzing he received.

Yank Olympic Relay Team to Race British

London, April 16.—The relay race between the United States Olympic games team and the British empire quartet will take place at the famous Stamford Bridge grounds, London, on July 19.

The relays will be between teams of four at 440 yards, one, two and four miles. Other contests will also be staged between the specialists of this country and Great Britain.

AMUSEMENTS

Novel Insurance in "The Heart Raider"

Now it develops that some fathers of modern speed girls are taking out insurance policies to protect themselves from any financial set-backs that might result from the daring exploits of said girls in quest of excitement.

The first care-worn "master of the house" to take such precautions in the movies was Reginald Gray, a supporting player in Agnes Ayres' latest Paramount starring vehicle, "The Heart Raider," now showing at the Lyceum Theatre.

Miss Ayres, in the role of Muriel Gray, is a typical example of the much-discussed modern miss. She is a wilful, lively girl and has been accustomed to having things her own way. When affairs go to suit her Muriel is a peaceful, demure girl, but when her will is opposed she bristles up and then things happen. Muriel's mania is speed. There is nothing slow about her, hence the freak insurance policy. The production, directed by Wesley Ruggles, is a delightful love comedy. Included in the strong supporting cast are Mahlon Hamilton, leading man; Charles Ruggles, Marie Burke, Chas. Riegal and Frazer Coulter.

Agnes Ayres and Mahlon Hamilton in the Paramount Picture "The Heart Raider"

The scenario was written by Jack Cunningham, who made the adaptation of the Emerson Hough novel, "The Covered Wagon."

Constance Talmadge and Conway Tearle in "The Dangerous Maid"

Constance Talmadge has decided to let her hair grow long and curly again. In "The Dangerous Maid," her latest Joseph M. Schenck photoplay, Constance's hair is curled in the fashion of the time of James II.

"And I'm going to let my hair grow longer still," says Constance. "I think girls today are altogether too masculine—or rather, try to be too masculine," declares Constance. "In 'The Dangerous Maid' the story calls on me to wear the cavalier costume affected by the men of that day. And while I admit that silk breeches and lace sleeves and ruffs are becoming, bobbed hair certainly would not be fitting for such a costume."

"The Dangerous Maid," a First National release, will be shown at the New Park last time tonight.

United Press Sports Editor

New York, April 16.—Benny Leonard laments the lack of lightweight opponents that may force him to graduate into the welterweight class. The champion's plea for sympathy is endorsed by leading promoters who want to employ Leonard, but can't find a job for him.

There has been talk for more than a year about the necessity of building up some good lightweight challenger for an outdoor bout. Tex Rickard tried to hustle Louis Vicentini into the role, but he was stopped temporarily when he lost a decision to Johnny Shugrae.

Pat Moran, the New Orleans boy, measured up to the specifications of a candidate for a while, until he was beaten by the veteran Johnny Dundee.

Dundee claims that he is entitled to the first crack at Leonard, but his first duty is to defend his featherweight and junior lightweight titles.

In the general scramble it seems that Rocky Kansas, the little Buffalo Italian, has been overlooked.

Kansas, perhaps, has a more legitimate claim for another chance at the title than any other contender in the class. It is certain that his record makes him more qualified than any other contender who has to be "built up" into a card.

Kansas has built himself up by beating practically every man in the class, with the exception of Leonard.

His best known role in recent years was that of a built-up wrecker. When Willie Jackson was worked almost up to a fight with Leonard, two years ago, Kansas beat him and spoiled the plans. When Tendler had worked up into the dominating position among the contenders, Kansas beat him and set him back and when Charley White had been advanced within a step of a title bout, Kansas beat him and removed him almost entirely from consideration.

Kansas knocked out Richie Mitchell when he was in his prime, and he beat Sailor Friedman and every other lightweight of importance in the class.

In his Benton Harbor fight with Leonard, he broke his arm in the third round, and he continued five rounds before his manager, Dan Rogers, tossed in the towel and made him stop.

Just recently he had Jack Bernstein on the floor and badly beaten when he hurt his arm, and even with that handicap, he earned a draw.

FARRELL PICKS THE WINNERS

The sport columns of the Dispatch have been devoted to a discussion of the 1924 major league pennant races, the chances of the sixteen teams and a prediction of the order in which the teams will finish, made by Henry L. Farrell, United Press sports editor.

In the last four years Farrell has failed only once to pick the two pennant winners. He picked Cleveland as the American League pennant winner in 1920, but missed out on Brooklyn as the National League winner. Since then he has not only been successful in predicting the winners, but has called the turn practically on every club in the two leagues.

Last April Farrell placed six of the eight teams as they finished in the National League and he picked first and second in the American League. Farrell also was one of the few critics who picked the Yankees to beat the Giants in the world's series last fall.

WRECK INJURIES MAY BLIND HURLER

San Mateo, Calif., April 16.—E. L. Spencer of Modesto, Calif., star hurler of Stanford university and candidate for the American Olympic team, is in a hospital today threatened with blindness as a result of an automobile wreck.

He was brought to the hospital by Paul Wilbur, son of Secretary of Navy Wilbur, who found Spencer pinned under the machine.

The machine which had been driven by R. A. Pike, another Stanford student, overturned when, according to Pike, he turned out of the road to avoid an oncoming car which was crowding him. Pike was not injured.

AMUSEMENTS

Novel Insurance in "The Heart Raider"

Now it develops that some fathers of modern speed girls are taking out insurance policies to protect themselves from any financial set-backs that might result from the daring exploits of said girls in quest of excitement.

The first care-worn "master of the house" to take such precautions in the movies was Reginald Gray, a supporting player in Agnes Ayres' latest Paramount starring vehicle, "The Heart Raider," now showing at the Lyceum Theatre.

Miss Ayres, in the role of Muriel Gray, is a typical example of the much-discussed modern miss. She is a willful, lively girl and has been accustomed to having things her own way. When affairs go to suit her Muriel is a peaceful, demure girl, but when her will is opposed she bristles up and then things happen.

Agnes Ayres and Mahlon Hamilton in the Paramount Picture "The Heart Raider"

Muriel's mania is speed. There is nothing slow about her, hence the freak insurance policy. The production, directed by Wesley Ruggles, is a delightful love comedy. Included in the strong supporting cast are Mahlon Hamilton, leading man; Charles Ruggles, Marie Burke, Chas. Riegall and Frazer Coulter.

The scenario was written by Jack Cunningham, who made the adaptation of the Emerson Hough novel, "The Covered Wagon."

Constance Talmadge and Conway Tearle in "The Dangerous Maid"

Constance Talmadge has decided to let her hair grow long and curly again. In "The Dangerous Maid," her latest Joseph M. Schenck photoplay, Constance's hair is curled in the fashion of the time of James II. "And I'm going to let my hair grow longer still," says Constance. "I think girls today are altogether too masculine—or rather, try to be too masculine," declares Constance. "In 'The Dangerous Maid' the story calls on me to wear the cavalier costume affected by the men of that day. And while I admit that silk breeches and lacy sleeves and ruffs are becoming, bobbed hair certainly would not be fitting for such a costume."

"The Dangerous Maid," a First National release, will be shown at the New Park last time tonight.
